THE REVOLUTIONARIES

Leadership Council

EVERYONE IS A REVOLUTIONARY. EVERYONE HAS A ROLE. EVERYONE CAN LEAD.

Read. Code. Build. Revolutionize.

Every Revolutionary reads, codes, and builds — and every Revolutionary is also a leader. The Leadership Council gives our team a real structure, the same way a company, a lab, or a competition team runs: eight roles, eight responsibilities, one shared mission. A student can hold a title on this council alongside their regular team responsibilities, and every role reports back to the full team, not just to a coach.

THE EIGHT SEATS

1 CHIEF REVOLUTIONARY

Leads the movement

Team leader. Sets the vision, represents the team, and helps coordinate all seven other divisions.

2 CHIEF ENGINEER

Builds the vision

Leads robot design, mechanical engineering, building, testing, and technical problem-solving.

3 CHIEF TECHNOLOGIST

Codes the future

Leads coding, programming, electronics, sensors, and autonomous systems.

4 CHIEF STRATEGIST

Thinks three moves ahead

Leads competition strategy, scouting, match preparation, and alliance strategy.

5 CHIEF OF INNOVATION

Imagines what's next

Leads brainstorming, experimentation, creative solutions, and new ideas.

6 CHIEF COMMUNICATOR

Tells the story

Leads presentations, public speaking, social media, team branding, and communication.

7 CHIEF OF KNOWLEDGE

Learns, researches, and shares

Leads research, reading, technical documentation, and sharing what the team learns.

8 CHIEF OF COMMUNITY IMPACT

Uses STEM to change the community

Leads STEM outreach, mentoring, service projects, and community partnerships.

CHIEF REVOLUTIONARY — A ROTATING SEAT

One seat on this council works differently than the rest. Chief Revolutionary is not a permanent title — it rotates each competition season, elected or appointed by the team. No single Revolutionary owns leadership. Every student gets a real turn to carry it, and every student who has ever been a Chief Revolutionary knows what it takes to hold that seat for someone else.

You don't have to wait until you're grown to lead something. On this team, you can lead it now.

HOW WE CHOOSE A NEW CHIEF REVOLUTIONARY

At the start of each competition season, the team nominates and elects (or the coach appoints, based on what fits the group that season) a new Chief Revolutionary. Any Revolutionary in good standing is eligible. The outgoing Chief Revolutionary helps the new one get settled into the role before stepping back into the seven other seats alongside everyone else.
