THE REVOLUTIONARIES

Library Book Care Pledge

Every Revolutionary carries a library card and reads at least one book a week. That privilege comes with a responsibility: the next person who wants that book deserves to find it in good shape too.

MY PROMISE

"I will treat every book I borrow the way I'd want to find a book on the shelf — whole, clean, and ready for the next reader."

- ☐ I will keep my books in one safe place, like my backpack, so they don't get lost or damaged.
- ☐ I will not write, color, or draw in library books.
- ☐ I will not tear, bend, or rip pages.
- ☐ I will keep food and drinks away from my books.
- ☐ I will return my books on time so the next Revolutionary can read them too.
- ☐ If something happens to a book, I will tell an adult right away instead of hiding it.
